THE GOLDEN LAMB HOTEL
Lebanon, Warren County, Ohio

OWNER: Robert H. Jones, proprietor

DATE OF ERECTION: 1815 -1882

ARCHITECT: None

PRESENT CONDITION: Earliest portions (three-story corner portion) erected in 1815. In 1841, addition to right was made. The 4th floor was added in 1882. Porch was added to the front in 1835, and corresponds with porch appearing on print made of the building in 1840. Changes are being made on the structure almost continuously, as might be judged by noting the present plan.

MATERIALS OF CONSTRUCTION: Refer to the drawings.

OTHER EXISTING RECORDS: In the hands of the owner and on file at the Lebanon Public Library.

ADDITIONAL DATA: Oldest hotel in continuous operation in the state. On important highway and has been frequented by many notables of the past--Henry Clay, Charles Dickens, state governors, etc.
